The Colorado Governor Has Engagements for Four Months

DENVER, Dec. 31 .- Governor Waite will go eastward Jan. 10 on a long trip. He has a long lecturing tour mapped out and his first engagement is at Chicago January 12.

Speaking of his plans for the future, Governor Walte said: "I shall leave Colorado for about four months, so the engagements would seem to warrant, after which I shall return. By no means will I remove my home from the state. For my lectures, they will be what is known as 'popular' talks. They will be delivered at such prices as will enable the people who most need to hear them, to hear them. For my talks, they will be on live subjects. I shall not touch upon dead matter. This is to be for instance. That is dead as a door nail. I have just received a letter from Congressman Bell in which he says the
